Where does St Martin cake come from?

Dance to the vibes of the carnivals of St. Martin! The St. Martin Nature Reserve was created in 1998 and covers 3,060 hectares and 11 km of coastline, in the north-east of the island, on the French side. This cake originates with the Shawnees, who would cook a corn patty on a hot stone, that they would then take with them on day-long expeditions.
