Once built, the solar plant will extend its supply power from the Vatican radio station to the entire 825 people living in the city. The city only produced about 0.0000443% output of carbon emission in 2022 but the Pope is eager to transition successfully to encourage the development of sustainable models in other countries.

The pope appointed two special commissioners to spearhead the project: the president of the commission governing Vatican City State, Cardinal Fernando Vérgez Alzaga, and the president of the Administration of the Patrimony of the Holy See (APSA), Archbishop Giordano Piccinotti. APSA directly administers Vatican real estate and properties.
